Call the meeting to Order: President Serdar opened the Rio Vista Rotary Club's 3524. and the Term's 24. meeting for "Creating Hope in the World"

As week's proxy program chair, Ed Kingen led the pledge and the Rotary Grace. Jim McPherson and Molly Coito led us by "Bobby Darin's Splish Splash"

Guest Speaker/Speaker of the Day: Cameron Roth - Game Warden from California Department of Fish & Wildlife

Visiting Rotarians:

Guest of Rotarians: Virginia Thomas - John Hospenthal, Mark Kobold - Dan Schindler

Celebrations/Birthdays:

Virginia, Molly and our guests John Hospenthal, Cameron Roth shared a couple jokes with us.

Treasurer's Report:

Hector mentioned the outstanding invoices and would like those turned as soon as possible.

Committee Reports:

- Patty - Talked about the Golf Committee: The golf tournament budget was approved. It was decided that there is not going to be a door prize this year and they will be coming up with an alternative option. They will be serving tri-tip for dinner which is a $2 increase per person. The golf club will be short golf carts again this year, they are trying to work on a solution. Ed Kingen will be assigning golf carts to the golfers this year rather than the golf club. Hector and Derek have both turned in donations for the raffle. Hector advised he needs a copy of the 2024 Golf Tournament brochure to put onto the website.
- Our new member Clarence Isadore received finally his official membership certificate.
- Kim provided an update on the Police Academy.

Confessions:

Molly - Her brother Tom and wife gave birth to their second daughter. Molly is fine free.
