I-Program of the Week's Program Chair:

Mark Kobold talked about how he get involved in REACH. He introduced our guest speaker Shirley Marchetti.

Program:

Shirley Marcettie was the cofounder a community-based response to the impact of alcohol and drug abuse, the REACH Project in 1968. The mission began through a report of Antioch Police Department showing the dramatic increase of alcohol and other drug use by adolescents and adults and it's impact on families and the community.

Today REACH Project continues its missions so that the difficulties experienced by youths, adults and families can be replaced by productive, meaningful and joyful lives. Dedicated professionals carry out effective programs and services in keeping the work of today's proven fields of substance Use Disorder, Juvenile Justice Diversion, Community Engagement, Strengthening Families and Student Support Services.
