

A Mobil Eye clinic was sponsored by the Rio Vista Rotary Club and presented to the people of Thailand five years ago. Since then, it has served nearly 8,000 people from rural areas at the rate of 50 patients per day, according to Chaisak Koaysomboon, Managing Director. These services were provided by a dedicated Thai Red Cross medical team under the stewardship of Dr. Stuart Seiff, a California, U. S. A., Ophthalmologist
