

THE Rio Rotarian

"A good speech should be like a woman's skirt: long enough to cover the subject and short enough to create interest." -Winston Churchill

HELEN MADERE BRIDGE

"Having fun helping others...watering the rosebuds"

-Dr. Ted Schulz

Welcome

- J. Mac & Ted lead us as we murder the pop classic, "Under the Boardwalk."

Treasurer's Report

- Jay reports $19K in Charity, $9K in General, $690 in Marble Draw. He adds that old "Blood & Guts" General Patton had lowest loss of life in his army during WWII.

The Bell takes a powder

- Pres. Pat cleverly retrieves the bell, which had somehow gotten lost.

Celebrations

- Leon announces birthdays for Jon Blegen and himself.

Reports & Announcements

- Derek reports Tequila Y Más is a week from tomorrow; he asks that we purchase tickets from local retailers, like Pets 4 All, Abels, and Books Rio V. So far they've sold 40 tickets and made expenses; they've issued 151 tickets. Proceeds support scholarships, so please be generous and buy tickets!
- Hog August Bites signup sheet is sent around. Event is Sat., August 24.

Milestones

- Leon visited Reno for his birthday. On another day, his backpack was stolen at a restaurant in a San Jose mall; he got it back—as a GPS tracker was in it.

(Cont'd. below)

Interact members above from left: Gabe De La Rosa, Brook Okamura, and Alyssa De La Rosa.

(Cont'd. from bottom of left column, page 2)

approach. She'll have 3 roommates at UC Irvine, including her sister and a unique body double. Gabe won't cut his hair; he starts Solano College, next month; his friend will be coming from L. A. to celebrate Gabe's birthday; and Gabe is planning to study Computer Engineering.

Tom Kelly

Tom Kelly—new member gives "I" program

Tom is a master of many trades. He's been to 43 countries. As a youngster he attended Catholic school, then Cabrillo JC., UNR, & SJS, then he joined the Naval Reserve and saw action on the helicopter carrier, "Okinawa." He toured the Mekong Delta and saw China, Hong Cong, and the Philippines in 1979. He started as Ensign and made Lieutenant in 3 years. In 1979 he participated in retrieving a space craft with astronauts returning from a trip to the moon. After leaving the Navy, he joined the family insurance busi-

(cont'd. below)

(cont'd. from above)

- Leon pays $72 (his age) to Harvey Felt Fund.
- For his birthday, Jon plays a round at Yocha Dehe golf course at Cache Creek Casino. He says it's a great course, and parts with $50 to Harvey Felt Fund.
- Jim and Shirley celebrate 50th anniversary and Jim's 74th birthday. He gives $50—half to Harvey Felt Fund and half to Dictionary Fund.

Confessions

- Bob coughs up $25—just to prove that he can pay fines, too.
- Exciting free-for-all at ball game
Pat pays $6 because his softball team won by 6 points. He gets a bunch of lip, anyway, in spite of his honesty. Lee says Abel's team beat his team, and they should pay $100. Derek adds some guy was trying to fight everybody, but Danny set things straight.

Interact report

- Three of our star Interact team, Alyssa, Brooke, and Gabe, stagger out of bed early to make our meeting. Alyssa starts summer school in Santa Barbara, leaving the first weekend of August for 6 weeks of studies and 3 units of credit. Brooke flew in from Spain and got up at 6:53 a.m. to arrive as your editor was finishing breakfast. She describes her golfing experiences, revealing the unique, yet questionable ethics of her

(cont'd. top right column, page 1)

Editor-in-chief:
Brandalyn "Pocket" Powell
Consultant:
Danny Schindler
Today's Reporter:
Bob Bard

(cont'd. from from above)

ness. Then, utilizing his B. S. in Marketing, he became a "high tech" broker with 374 insurance Co.'s. He also restores cars and historic homes. His Italian fiancée speaks 4 languages; she's visiting here, Sept. 24, and moving here in Feb., 2020.

50/50 Raffle "Marble Draw"

Lee had the lucky ticket, but didn't draw the lucky marble.

Lions Stage Gala Picnic on the Patio by the Point

It was this reporter's privilege to attend the Lions' first summer picnic, Tuesday at noon. They'll continue on the third Tuesdays of the month during the warm weather. Lions Pres. Sam Richards presided, while chef Danny Lindstrom, Cathy's better half, served up a fantastic spread of hamburgers with all the trimmings. Our entire City Crew was invited, and a large group showed up to enjoy the repast. Kudos to our corps of city workers and to the Lions!

(Left) Lions Pres. Sam Richards
(Right) Lions chef, Danny Lindstrom
(Below) Ten city crew members pose before returning to work.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

DATE	SPEAKER/EVENT	PROGRAM CHAIR
July 26	Serdar Gurel—Rotary Foundation (Board meeting to follow)	Pat Byron
July 27	Tequila & Más—The Point	Hector De La Rosa
August 2	To Be Announced	Lee Williams
August 9	Darrell Brown, Nurse Practitioner	Ken Wudel
August 16	Don Ryan, Solano County OES	Danny Schindler